

Best practices for supporting others

Wednesday, November 4, 2026 at 1 p.m. CT

This webinar reviews best practices and techniques for supporting others. Attendees will learn how to provide support without assuming the role of a counselor and get practical strategies and resources for listening to and being there for loved ones. Whether you're helping a friend, family member or colleague, you'll leave this session with tools to build stronger, more supportive relationships.
