BACKGROUND/INTENT: Due to the impending 180 day expiration of the Global Authorized Departure, the Department of State has authorized a new evacuation order, reference (a) for individuals who departed under the Global Authorized Departure that became effective March 14, 2020. This new Global Authorized Departure is effective from September 10, 2020 through October 9, 2020, and applies to DoD eligible family members (EFMs) and civilian employees currently at safe havens under the original Global Authorized Departure. DoD EFMs and civilian employees who did not have travel orders approved prior to May 7, 2020, may no longer avail themselves of the opportunity to depart, consistent with the guidance previously issued in reference (b).

The Defense Travel Management Office has released additional guidance as stated in reference (c) on benefits payment processing. Additionally, reference (d), the Joint Travel Regulations, Table 6-17 provides further clarification on evacuation allowance determinations.
