

Ms. Ashley N. Tease

U.S. Office of Special Counsel

Deputy Chief, Diversity, Outreach, & Training Unit

Biography:

Ms. Tease has worked for the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC) since September 2014, and currently serves as the Deputy Chief of the OSC's Diversity, Outreach, & Training Unit. In this capacity, she is responsible for conducting external trainings for federal and non-federal organizations on prohibited personal practices, including reprisal for whistleblowing. Prior to this role, Ms. Tease served as an Attorney-Advisor in the OSC's Investigation and Prosecution Division where she analyzed and investigated complaints from federal employees who alleged reprisal for whistleblowing and other prohibited personnel practices. Additionally, Ms. Tease facilitated resolutions between federal employees and their respective agencies.

Before joining the OSC, Ms. Tease worked for a boutique federal employment law firm and at the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Ms. Tease received her J.D. from American University, Washington College of Law, and her B.A. from the University of Maryland, College Park.
